Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments (see the instructions for Part III)
Check if the organization used Schedule O to respond to any question in this Part III ☐

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
The Committee for Justice advocates for and educates the American people about the rule of law and the importance of constitutionally limited government, including the need for judges and other government officials to follow the text of the Constitution.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.

28 The Committee for Justice advocated for and educated the American people about the rule of law and the Constitution's limits on federal power and its protection of individual liberty, including highlighting instances where the courts, Congress, and federal agencies failed to follow those principles.
