The Doris Duke Artist Awards: these grants constitute qualifying distributions because such grants are made pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code Section 4945(g)(3)

The Doris Duke Artist Awards, a sub-initiative of the Doris Duke Performing Artist Awards, support exemplary individual artists in contemporary dance, jazz, theatre and related interdisciplinary work who have proven their artistic vitality and commitment to their field. The Doris Duke Artist Award is not a lifetime achievement award, nor a "genius" grant. The award is a deeper investment in the potential of dedicated artists, empowering them through the freedom of unrestricted support while celebrating past achievement.

Doris Duke Artist Award recipients are entitled to unrestricted/flexible funds totaling up to $275,000 each. Artists will receive an unrestricted grant of $250,000 distributed in equal installments over a four-year period. An additional $25,000 of unrestricted funds will be made available to artists who can demonstrate that they have started or increased resources (whether IRA's, SEP's 401(k)'s, etc.) that will allow them to continue their creative exploration in their later years when other resources are likely to be unpredictable and difficult to obtain.

With the seventh class of Doris Duke Artist Award recipients announced in 2019 a total of 114 of America's most vital and productive performing artists have received awards. Doris Duke Artists Award recipients are selected through a rigorous, anonymous process of nomination and peer review. No applications are accepted. Candidates for Doris Duke Artist Awards are instead selected from a pool of nominated artists who have won at least three designated national grants, awards, accolades or fellowships over the past seven years.

Recipients of Doris Duke Artist Awards have access to goal assessment tools; financial and legal counseling; and conferences with peer-to-peer learning opportunities. Artists are also able to allocate a portion of their funding to cover costs of professional development services including workshops to help artists expand their skills and practices (from strategic planning to fundraising to promotion); phone-in clinics that offer support for the business areas of artistic practices (legal, financial, tech, PR and business advice); memberships that provide opportunities for crowdfunding and fiscal sponsorship partners, as well as pro-rated fees for insurance or health care.

The Foundation received prior approval from the IRS for this grant-making program. A copy of the IRS Advance Approval is available upon request.

The Doris Duke Foundation's investments are commingled with that of a related organization, the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation. The realized gains reportable on the Doris Duke Foundation's Form 990-PF are an allocation of the portfolio's total gains based on its percentage of holdings in the account. Accordingly, deriving a sales price for Line 6(b) is impractical. A detailed schedule of gains and losses is available upon request.

Notes:

(1) All Board of Directors members and officers provide services to the five related entities (Doris Duke Charitable Foundation Inc, Doris Duke Management Foundation, Duke Farms Foundation, Doris Duke Foundation for Islamic Art, Doris Duke Foundation), and may be reached at the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation Inc's corporate address at 650 Fifth Avenue, 19th Floor, NY, NY, 10019.

(2) The Doris Duke Foundation does not compensate any of its officers directly; the officers are paid compensation by the Doris Duke Management Foundation (DDMF). The hours shown on the Form 990-PF are based on an allocation of time spent on matters related to the Doris Duke Foundation (DDF) and are for informational purposes only. These officers provide services to other related entities (Doris Duke Charitable Foundation Inc (DDCF Inc), Doris Duke Management Foundation (DDMF), Duke Farms Foundation (DFF), and Doris Duke Foundation for Islamic Art (DDFIA) and in the aggregate, hours worked on matters related to these entities equal or exceed 40 hours a week. The allocation of compensation paid by the Doris Duke Management Foundation and allocated to other related entities is based on an annual survey.

(3) The trustees who receive compensation are paid by the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation Inc, even though they provide services to each of the five foundations (DDCF Inc, DDMF, DDF, DFF, and DDFIA). The hours reported on Form 990-PF represent an allocation of the trustees' time spent on matters related to DDF including attendance at Board meetings and various foundation-related events and discussions. These hour allocations are reported to comply with the Form 990-PF reporting requirement, and are for informational purposes only. Trustees have oversight responsibilities and perform multiple tasks across all five foundations; and thus, significant additional hours are reported on the DDCF Inc, DFF, DDMF and DDFIA tax returns.

The Doris Duke Foundation provides three different classes of grants: Matching Gift donations, Doris Duke Artist and Impact Awards and standard grants to other Section 501(c)(3) organizations (most of which are public charities).

The procedures and criteria for awarding each type of funding is different.

Matching Gifts:

All non-temporary full-time and part-time foundation employees and board members are eligible to participate in the foundation's Matching Gifts Program immediately upon their date of hire or membership. Donations made to qualifying Section 501(c)(3) charitable organizations will be matched by the foundation up to three times (3x) the donated amount. The maximum amount the foundation will contribute per participant in any calendar year is $20,000.

Doris Duke Artist and Impact Awards:

Doris Duke Artist Award recipients are selected through a rigorous, anonymous process of peer review following nomination by leaders in the arts field. No applications are accepted. Candidates for Doris Duke Artist Awards are selected from a pool of artists in contemporary dance, jazz, theatre and related interdisciplinary work who have won at least three designated national grants, awards, accolades or fellowships over the past seven years (see Attachment 11 for more information).

Grants to Organizations:

Public charities (and occasionally, private foundations) may request funding from the Doris Duke Foundation via letter submission. The foundation does not require any specific prescribed format for the submission.
