Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a First-class or charter travel	Executive Director may travel first class when necessary to accommodate the demands of the role, ensure productivity during travel, and represent the organization appropriately in high-level or time-sensitive engagements. Deputy Executive Director is authorized to travel in first class in accordance with the terms of his employment agreement, which expressly provides for first-class accommodations (when business class is not available) when traveling on official organizational business. All other staff members may travel first-class (when business class is not available) per the Handbook policy below: Business and First Class. If the published non-stop flight time equals or exceeds 4 hours, business class is authorized unless the cost is prohibitive (in the sole discretion of the Executive Director or the COO). First class travel may be authorized by the Executive Director or the COO if the cost of doing so is minimal compared to other authorized options of travel, or if "special circumstances" are present (such as disability, flights to multiple destinations in a brief time, travel with Players or MLB or Club officials, or where the interests of the Players would be served).
