Summary

Activities & Governance

1 Briefly describe the organization’s mission or most significant activities:
We are the successors of a group of far-sighted Dayton community leaders who, in 1966, formed a separately incorporated not-for-profit foundation to encourage private donations to Wright State University. Today as then, the WSU Foundation's sole mission is to raise and distribute private support to help the University accomplish its strategic goals. We manage over $150 million in assets so generously provided by our alumni and other community partners. As a qualified charitable organization, the WSU Foundation is exempt from taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and annually files a Form 990 with the IRS. Our financial records are subjected to an annual audit by an outside, independent accounting firm. For copies of our latest Form 990s and audited financial statements, as well as other Foundation governing documents, please see our web site at:

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part IV, Line 2b Explanation of escrow agreement	WSU Foundation holds and invests assets on behalf of the Western Ohio Education Foundation (WOEF) and the WSU Alumni Association (WSUAA). WOEf is the educational foundation that benefits the Lake Campus branch of Wright State University, located in Celina, Ohio. WSUAA is an association of former Wright State students that encourages continued interaction with the University. Both entities share proportionately in the investment earnings and losses of the WSU Foundation non-endowed portfolio, including fees charged by professional investment managers. Assets deposited by WOEf and WSUAA with the WSU Foundation may be withdrawn or supplemented at any time with little or no notice required. Assets on deposit at the end of the fiscal year are included in the "investments in securities" line of the WSU Foundation statement of activities. The related liability is listed as "deposits held in custody for others."
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of endowment funds	Endowment funds have been established with the Foundation to support three major program areas; academic and support programs, student financial aid and research. Specifically, endowments fund program operations, student scholarships and awards, department chair positions, professorships, student support programs and individual research projects.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 FIN 48 (ASC 740) footnote	The Foundation has been approved under the Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) as a nonprofit organization exempt from federal taxes on its normal activities. However, the Foundation is subject to federal income tax on any unrelated business taxable income. The Foundation files tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction. GAAP prescribes recognition thresholds and measurement attributes for the consolidated financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position or expected to be taken in a tax return. A tax position is recognized as a benefit only if it is "more likely than not" that the tax position would be sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized is the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized on examination. For tax positions not meeting the "more likely than not" test, no tax benefit is recorded. Management has concluded that they are unaware of any tax benefits or liabilities to be recognized at June 30, 2021 and 2020, respectively. The Foundation does not have any tax benefits recorded at June 30, 2021, and does not expect that position to significantly change in the next year. The Foundation would recognize interest and/or penalties related to income tax matters in income tax expense, if applicable, and there were no amounts accrued for interest and penalties at June 30, 2021 and 2020.
