What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
Class Action inspires action to end classism and extreme inequality by providing change-makers with tools, training and inspiration to raise awareness, shift cultural beliefs about social class, build cross-class solidarity, and transform institutions and systems.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.

28 Class Action delivered 10 trainings to non-profit organizations on class and classism; generated 4 newsletters, and continued to host the Trainers' Summit II, a gathering of a community of practitioners for racial justice and anti-classism trainers to share skills and experiences, with more than 20 participants. Approximately 200 people attended our 10th Annual First Generation College Student Summit in Nov 2022. Our First Generation Leadership Development Initiative, a professional skills development program giving recent first-generation college graduates the opportunity to facilitate trainings on class and classism and share their experiences while developing their skills, meets monthly and hosts trainings regularly. This program has grown and includes 3 new students this year. The Staffing the Mission program gave 5 presentations and workshops this year for nonprofit organizations and workers, with the goal of creating more sustainable, worker-friendly nonprofit jobs.
