Return Reference	Explanation
Part X : FIN48 Footnote	GAAP requires that a tax position be recognized or derecognized based on a "more likely than not" threshold. This applies to positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return . The adoption of this guidance did not have an impact on the Hollaback's financial statements, as management believes that there are no uncertain tax positions within its financial statements. Hollaback currently has procedures in place to ensure the maintenance of its tax-exempt status. These include identifying and reporting unrelated business income, determining and meeting its filing and tax obligations in jurisdictions in which it operates. The management of Hollaback does not believe its financial statements include any uncertain tax positions. Hollaback's Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, for the years ended June 30, 2018, 2019 and 2020 are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after they were filed.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part XII, Line 2: Change of Oversight or Selection Process	Hollaback's Board of Directors is responsible for the selection of an independent accountant to be used for the annual audit of Hollaback's financial statements. Hollaback's Audit Committee reviews a draft of the audited financial statements as soon as it is ready and makes changes as necessary. The changes are then forwarded to the auditor who revises the financial statements based on those changes. The revised audited financial statements are forwarded to the Board of Directors for review. Upon review, a signed version of the audited financial statements is obtained from the Auditor. This process is followed consistently by Hollaback and there has been no change in this process from the prior year.
