Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2 Procedures for monitoring use of grant funds	The first step on monitoring of grants funds occurs during the Organizational Capacity Assessment phase, when HAI determines the capacity of the partner in a variety of areas, including financial and accounting. Based on this assessment, HAI establishes what type of monitoring is required (if regular quarterly monitoring is enough or if more frequent monitoring is recommended to ensure proper oversight). Also based on this assessment, HAI determines what type of subaward will be used (advance or reimbursement). If an advance modality is used, regular reconciliation of expenses (monthly or quarterly, depending on the partner's assessment) is implemented, ensuring proper allowability and allocability of expenses. Review of documentation backing each expense charged to the grant takes place at this time. If reimbursement, then the partner must submit monthly or quarterly invoices (depending on organizational assessment), which are reviewed along with proper documentation for allowability and allocability purposes, and then paid.
