Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 179,051,827 including grants of $ 168,628,748) (Revenue $ 752,539)

The Federation's largest endeavor is to allocate funds to a network of nearly 100 agencies and initiatives in the Chicago area that aid 500,000 Chicagoans of all faiths, including: hot meals and groceries, utility and rent assistance, prescriptions and medical care for impoverished families; job training and placement for people who are out of work; therapeutic school and specialized services for people with disabilities; support services for Holocaust survivors; assisted living, specialized services for seniors; respite services for caregivers of frail seniors and people with disabilities; counseling, prevention and intervention services for troubled teens; an entire continuum of prevention and therapeutic services for individuals and families in crisis; and security assistance to safeguard Jewish facilities.Because the Jewish United Fund of Metropolitan Chicago and the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago are closely linked in numerous ways (combined Board of Directors, shared professional and shared office space), and because JUF provides an annual, multi-million dollar allocation to the Jewish Federation, we measure and report our program and service results jointly for the combined JUF/Federation enterprise, which are summarized below:MENTAL HEALTHProlonged isolation, uncertainty and financial stress have taken a toll on mental health across our community. Last year, JUF deployed an additional $2.2 million to ramp up mental health programs for people who were in crisis, struggling with anxiety, depression and addiction. In FY22, thousands more needed help. According to the most recent Chicago Jewish Population Study, mental health care is the greatest single health service need in our local community, with 1 in 4 local Jewish households requiring mental health assistance. The need is particularly stark among people ages 22-39, with nearly half (45%) of young couples and 1 in 3 (36%) young singles requiring mental health care. At the beginning of the fiscal year, there were 200 people on the waitlist for JCFS counseling services and there was a two-month wait for a counseling appointment at CJE SeniorLife.With JUF's support, our agencies stepped up to meet this growing need: - 36,000 people got mental health support from JUF agencies across the community in 2021 - a 65% increase over 2020. - JCFS Chicago doubled respite services for families of people with disabilities.- 5,800 professionals throughout the community got training to ensure they could offer appropriate resources and referrals to meet community members' mental health needs.- 800 JCC staff, Jewish preschool and day school teachers got coaching to better serve children's mental health needs - and to assist with their own self-care.- Historically, in a typical year, JCC would provide mental health supports to 15% of its campers; in summer 2021, half of its campers required this assistance. With JUF's support, Jewish institutions have added mental health facets to their programming:- Hundreds of young adults got support at one of Chicago's four Base centers - including individualized care, referrals to additional resources and programming to foster emotional resilience through a Jewish lens - to complement connections to community. - Scores of young professionals benefited from additional mental health and employment support through a joint initiative of JUF's Young Leadership Division and JCFS Chicago.- Hundreds of adults of all ages participated in weekly mindfulness programs with OROT.SECURITYLive Secure Chicago was launched in FY 21-22 to extend JUF's security support across our entire community, with the goal of ensuring that no Jewish institution's security choices are compromised by limited resources - and that every member of our community can safely and proudly participate in Jewish life.- To date, 100 Jewish groups have been assisted by JUF in procuring government funds to strengthen their security, including $20 million in federal and $6 million in state security grants. Our goal is to expand JUF's grant writing capacity to fully serve upwards of 300 Jewish organizations, enabling them to apply for - and win - more federal and state grants.- 88 Chicagoland Jewish groups have received $1.6 million in JUF matching grants in the last three years, which leveraged an additional $2.3 million in matching funds, resulting in nearly $4 million of new or improved physical security protecting 37,000 people. Our goal is to establish annual rounds of security grants to extend protection to all local Jewish schools, synagogues, camps and other institutions, ensuring that each facility can rely upon predictable funding cycles to update security plans - and the equipment to back them up. - JUF estimates that our community now spends $5 million annually on security at facilities and events. Our goal is to raise nearly $1 million more annually to extend protection to all local Jewish institutions. - JUF has conducted 250 security audits of local Jewish institutions to date and facilitated over 50 institutional security plans to help protect community members of all ages. Our goal is for every Jewish facility and program in the Chicago metropolitan area to have access to JUF's security expertise and technical assistance to ensure their safety. - In partnership with law enforcement agencies, to date JUF has hosted 20+ community security seminars and dozens of scenario trainings for organizational leaders. Our goal is to offer these seminars and training sessions to more organizations and more people, including staff, faculty and volunteers.- JUF has relationships with 24 federal, state, county, and local law enforcement agencies to ensure our community's access to top officials, security information and resources. Those relationships - and the expertise of those officers - are strengthened via JUF-sponsored Security Seminars in Israel. As part of expanded security operations, our goal is to hold these seminars more frequently. COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT IN JEWISH LIFEIn 2021, JUF connected young families to Jewish identity and community:- 11,000 local children get free, monthly Jewish books through PJ Library & PJ Our Way. - 8,000 young families participated in programs and events through JUF and its agencies last year - 1 in 5 of them for the first time.- JUF and its agencies hosted 300 events for young families throughout the year.Dynamic, JUF-supported programs engaged teens, college students & young adults in Jewish life:- 7,400 teens engaged Jewishly through programs run by JUF and JUF-supported agencies - an 87% increase over 2020. - 5,500 young adults engaged in programs provided by JUF and its agencies in 2021 - half of them for the first time. - 2,300 (36%) of all Jewish college students in Illinois participated in Hillel in 2021.- 1,500 college students attended 54 pre-Israel programs and events held on 16 college campuses across Illinois-1,200 youth received $1 million in scholarships and vouchers for Jewish summer camp.JUF continued to make Jewish education more affordable: - 4,300 individuals received $45.6 million in scholarships & tuition assistance in 2021 to help them afford Jewish preschool, day school, graduate and undergraduate programs.- 3,500 local Jewish Day School students - 76% of those enrolled - received scholarships and/or tuition assistance from JUF-supported day schools, which totaled $43.8 million in 2021.- 500+ preschoolers - 1 in 5 of those enrolled - received $1 million in scholarships and subsidies from JUF and JCC to help make their early childhood education possible. JUF continued to engage community members of all ages:- 48,000 community members attended outreach & education programs through JUF agencies in 2021, from support groups and workshops to genetic education and Jewish enrichment. - 22,000 adults attended 275 local Jewish programs provided by JUF and JCC Chicago.- 9,300 older adults participated in programming across JUF agencies.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 6,816,130 including grants of $ 163,300) (Revenue $ 115,606)

Hillels of Illinois - Federation supports a vast array of Jewish activities for students at colleges, universities and professional schools in Illinois. The Hillel program provides opportunities for Jewish students to explore and celebrate their Jewish identity at 16 different college campuses in Illinois, as well as through Hillel Regional programs. Hillel's vision is a world where every Jewish student is inspired to make an enduring commitment to Jewish life, learning and Israel. Hillel seeks to enrich the lives of Jewish students so that they may enrich the Jewish people and the world. Hillel seeks to create a pluralistic, welcoming and inclusive environment for Jewish college students: an environment where students are encouraged to grow intellectually, spiritually and socially. Increasingly, Hillel must help Jewish students counter campaigns by the Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions movement to delegitimize and demonize Israel, and to address the concomitant increase in campus anti-Semitism.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Line 2b:	The Federation acts as custodian of funds held on behalf of others. A summary of funds is as follows: -Send a Kid to Israel Program reserve fund; -Health, dental and vision insurance fund; -Unemployment compensation reserve fund; -Bar/Bat Mitzvah Registry
Part V, Line 4:	To provide funding for the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago / Jewish United Fund of Metropolitan affiliated agency and beneficiary agency programs.
Part X, Line 2:	The Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago, an Illinois not-for-profit corporation, is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law. However, income from certain activities not directly related to the Federation's tax-exempt purposes, such as unrelated business income allocated from investment partnerships, is subject to taxation. The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Federation may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Federation and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. At June 30, 2022 and 2021, there were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities. The Federation files Forms 990 and 990-T in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the State of Illinois. The Federation is generally no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for years before fiscal year 2019.

Part I, Line 2:	Grants made by the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago (The Federation) in the United States are monitored through an extensive process involving professionals and nearly 200 volunteers that includes submission of budgetary and programmatic information as well as face to face meetings with many of the grant recipients. The process entails submission and review of fiscal information (including updated budgets and audits) as well as program specific information including outcome measures when appropriate. Grants made to the Federation are then allocated to various affiliated agencies which have a long relationship with the Federation and notwithstanding this, both lay and professional leadership continue to assess the use of grants that are provided to them. The review is accompanied by face to face visits in which programs funded by the Federation are reviewed. The Federation also takes advantage of information that the grantees provide to accrediting and other funding bodies. In addition, the majority of grants presented on Schedule I are distributions made from Donor Advised Funds where the donor recommends grants to a variety of 501(c)(3) organizations.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 1a	The Jewish Federation has agreed to provide Steven Nasatir with a split dollar $1,000,000 insured death benefit. The insurance is designed so that upon Steven Nasatir's death, the Federation will receive a benefit equal to all of the premiums paid. The life insurance benefit is provided tax free to Steven Nasatir so there is an additional cash payment to Steven Nasatir each year to cover the taxes on the PS58 costs as well as the taxes grossed up. Social club dues are paid on behalf of appropriate employees conducting business at a private city club. The social club dues are a non-taxable benefit. No country club dues are paid by the organization.
Part I, Line 4b	Steven B. Nasatir: In 1999 the Jewish Federation entered into an agreement with Steven Nasatir that was contingent upon 5 more years of service as president and CEO and would result in annual payments of $50,000 per year (net of tax) beginning at age 64 and lasting throughout his lifetime. Dr. Nasatir began receiving payments under this agreement in 2009. During 2012, the Jewish Federation entered into a second agreement with Steven Nasatir which provides for annual payments of $5,000 beginning April 1, 2015 and lasting throughout his lifetime. Dr. Nasatir vested in the following benefits: Benefit payments from the aforementioned agreements will continue for the longer of 1) 10 years through December 2028 or 2) his lifetime. In the event of his death prior to 2029, payments will be made to Dr. Nasatir's beneficiary. The $50,000 and $5,000 annual payment amounts are to be adjusted annually in accordance with the CPI index. In 2017, the Jewish Federation entered into a third agreement with Steven Nasatir which provides for annual payments of $21,000 per year, beginning in 2018, for the longer of his lifetime or ten years (through December 2027). In 2021, Steven Nasatir received payments totaling $108,552 from the three supplemental non-qualified retirement plans. David Rosen: The Jewish Federation has an agreement with David Rosen which provides for annual payments of $25,000 per year that began in 2018 and will end in 2028. During 2017, the Jewish Federation entered into a second agreement with David Rosen which provides for annual payments of $25,000 that began in January 2022 and will end in 2032.
