SUMMARY OF DIRECT CHARITABLE ACTIVITIES	Form 990-PF, Part VIII-A	LINE 1: EXPANDING EQUITY - The W.K. Kellogg Foundation (WKKF) is committed to ensuring all children, families and communities have opportunities to reach their full potential. Companies in the private sector play an essential role in creating those opportunities for people of all backgrounds in their workplaces and communities. Through the Expanding Equity program, WKKF is helping more workplaces transform into more equitable places of opportunity. WKKF has been on its own decades-long journey to create a more equitable workplace and lean into our 2007 commitment to being an "effective anti-racist organization that promotes racial equity." We bring knowledge, experience, a network of relationships, and a collection of proven tools and human-centered approaches on racial equity, diversity and inclusion (REDI) to share with organizations and leaders seeking to do similar transformational work. Advancing REDI has been part of our work since the foundation's inception in 1930. Expanding Equity launched in 2019 as a series of live workshops. The live program supported nearly 100 organizations and more than 600 leaders from more than 10 industries. WKKF transitioned the program to an online learning platform in 2023 so that more leaders and organizations could take advantage of it. The program offers a supportive learning environment, with access to the coaching and data needed to measure and advance racial equity in a company. It includes: -Tools, coaching and nationally recognized expertise in racial equity and racial healing from Kellogg Foundation staff; -A Racial Equity Mini-Diagnostic that offers confidential baseline information to inform leadership and employee development, engagement and retention strategies; -Four dynamic cohort workshops that support peer learning and problem solving, in addition to offering tangible plans and steps to pilot racial equity initiatives; and -Specialized leadership programming for your leaders and employees. As a private foundation, Expanding Equity puts WKKF's capital, influence, knowledge and reputation to work in new ways, complementing our grantmaking, impact investing and other efforts to transform the workplaces where employees of color share their talents. By sharing action-oriented tools, we can help advance racial equity by transforming policies and practices in the industries and systems that shape society; drive better results for companies; and ultimately build equitable communities and an economy where all people can thrive. LINE 2: TRUTH, RACIAL HEALING & TRANSFORMATION (TRHT) / NATIONAL DAY OF RACIAL HEALING (NDORH) - Launched in 2016 by the W.K. Kellogg Foundation (WKKF) as an approach to racial equity work that connects healing with systemic transformation, Truth, Racial Healing & Transformation (TRHT) was designed in partnership with 176 leaders and scholars, representing more than 144 organizations. TRHT is a comprehensive, multi-year national and community-based process to bring about transformational and sustainable change. Through TRHT, partners address the historic and contemporary effects of racism in their communities and institutions. They work to replace the deeply held belief system that fuels racism with one that sees the inherent value of all people. This holistic approach addresses mind and heart, the interpersonal and systemic, and places the power of authentic, trust-based solidarity at the center. Through TRHT, participants build relationships, trust and collective power at the community and institutional level. These relationships lay the groundwork for powerful systemic change, as community partners re-envision and reshape their institutions, policies and practices. From the beginning, TRHT was designed by community and through collaboration. Community-led collaboration - that is cross-racial, intergenerational and cross-sector - remains the centerpiece of all TRHT efforts. The National Day of Racial Healing (NDORH) annual observance is hosted by WKKF and builds on the work and learnings of TRHT community partners. Launched in 2017, by more than 550 US leaders who wanted to set aside a day to take action together and: 1) Find ways to reinforce and honor our common humanity and create space to celebrate the distinct differences that make our communities vibrant; 2) Acknowledge that there are still deep racial divisions in America that must be overcome and healed; and 3) Commit to engaging people from all racial, ethnic, religious and identity groups in genuine efforts to increase understanding, communication, caring and respect for one another. The NDORH is an opportunity to bring ALL people together in their common humanity and inspire collective action to create a more just and equitable world; it is a time to contemplate our shared values and create the blueprint together for #HowWeHeal from the effects of racism. Fundamental to this day is a clear understanding that racial healing is at the core of racial equity.

SUMMARY OF DIRECT CHARITABLE ACTIVITIES	Form 990-PF, Part VIII-A	LINE 3: LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT: Community Leadership Network (CLN) / Global Fellows Network (GFN) / Solidarity Council on Racial Equity (ScORE) - The WKKF Community Leadership Network (CLN), launched in 2014 as a continuation of our commitment to support local leaders and foster collaborative action toward a more equitable society. In 2018, the program was redesigned and, with WKKF's grant support, the Center for Creative Leadership (CCL)- one of the most transformational leadership organizations in the world- was tapped to manage the program. CLN is an innovative fellowship for local leaders to connect, grow and lead transformational change toward a more equitable society. The 18-month fellowship brings together 80 inspiring leaders from across the United States and sovereign Tribes, with four cohorts of fellows in WKKF's priority places of Michigan, Mississippi, New Mexico, and New Orleans. The program offers hands-on leadership development, personalized coaching, peer networking and practical experience. As a result, fellows gain critical knowledge and skills for navigating today's challenges and advancing racial equity and racial healing, community engagement and collective leadership. Through the CLN, fellows become fully equipped to meet the opportunity of this moment and foster equitable opportunities for children, families, and communities. In addition, fellows become part of the WKKF Global Fellows Network (GFN), a powerful community of more than 1,100 change agents, thought leaders and influencers who are working to transform systems, policies and practices that create conditions for thriving children, working families and equitable communities, and support continued connection, collaborative learning, and collective action. This network of leaders spans more than 40 countries and is the living legacy of Will Keith Kellogg- who believed as WKKF believes today- that leaders are the key to sustainable change. The GFN offers opportunities for connection between members and with the foundation to share ideas, resources, and inspiration; collaboration and continuous learning, as well as the chance to engage in multi-generational and cross-cultural partnerships; and action- with and independent from WKKF- on important issues impacting communities around the world. Working together and with WKKF, the members of the GFN will unleash the power of collective action to positively transform their communities and our world to create equitable opportunities for all. WKKF has an enduring commitment to racial equity, and we know that for children to thrive, their communities need to be equitable places of opportunity. Yet, we live in a world that continues to favor some human beings over others; one that advances opportunities for a few at the expense of too many. At this moment, although many hunger for unity, no one voice has the power or reach to draw people together around equity. The Solidarity Council on Racial Equity (SCoRE) was formed in 2018 in response - to inspire more people to actively pursue equity. SCoRE members are recognized global change leaders in advocacy, the arts, business, education and media. Each stands at the forefront of equity in the public arena. Each is celebrated in his or her professional sphere. Each brings a stirring voice to conversations in the public arena, one that resonates with the Foundation's values and commitment to racial equity. As part of the SCoRE, these powerful voices are joining together to reach beyond familiar circles. In partnership with WKKF, they are contributing insight and creative energy to advance racial equity and create a platform for collective action. At the inaugural gathering, SCoRE members came together and showcased the breadth of members' experiences and commitment to racial equity. In the course of discussion, members shared views of solidarity and identified strong themes for shared work going forward - including wider, steady outreach to draw more people into positive action around racial equity, and a desire for continue focus on racial healing and narrative change. In June 2023, WKKF gathered international change agents, including visionaries from WKKF's Global Fellow Network (GFN), Racial Equity 2030, and Solidarity Council on Racial Equity (SCoRE), global young leaders, and members of WKKF's Board of Trustees and staff, to come together for powerful learning and collaboration for the Global Leadership Forum in Johannesburg, South Africa. Fueled by a commitment to social justice and community engagement, WKKF connected these leaders and visionaries across its networks to honor our shared humanity, build solidarity and inspire collective action for racial equity. The Forum offered a chance to build relationships and share and exchange innovative solutions to the challenges faced by children and families globally. For leaders, the Forum was an extraordinary opportunity to network with peers who share values and passions working in communities around the globe. The goal is to catalyze action and deeper collaboration via a strong, vibrant global network. For WKKF, the Forum was a learning opportunity to and deepen understanding of the impacts of the foundation's past and present investments in leadership development in Southern Africa and around the world. Across the five-day experience, participants visited historical sites, experienced community tours, networking opportunities, panel discussions and small group conversations. They heard from leaders in South Africa as well as members of the WKKF executive team. Representatives from the GFN, Racial Equity 2030, the SCoRE and global young leaders also showcased their work with community-led movements. LINE 4: RACIAL EQUITY 2030 GLOBAL CHALLENGE - Racial equity is the primary challenge of this time. For decades, the W.K. Kellogg Foundation (WKKF) has worked alongside communities to advance racial equity and racial healing, community engagement and leadership. Today, too

		many children's futures are bound by the color of their skin, their families' circumstances, or the limits of opportunity because of systemic inequities in their communities. In honor of WKKF's 90th anniversary, the racial equity 2030 global challenge was launched; it is a global challenge calling for bold solutions to drive an equitable future for children, their families, and communities. The challenge received more than 1,400 applications from more than 72 countries. In 2021, the 10 finalists were selected, and each received a $1 million planning grant, as well as nine months of capacity-building support. In Oct. 2022, five awardees were named to receive a combined $80 million over eight years, concluding in 2030, the W.K. Kellogg Foundation's 100th anniversary. The transformational work of each of the five awardees reflects the complexity of achieving racial equity and the structural changes that are needed to sustain meaningful, long-term change. They're each promoting access to economic opportunity, education, improved governance and justice, and social well-being. WKKF is honored to work alongside each of the awardees and help them scale their bold ideas.
