Our Higher Education program addresses major challenges such as affordability, access, completion, and student loan repayment. Our higher education agenda is built from conversations with student leaders, surveys, polling, data research, and policy analysis. We engage and train students across the country who are impacted by these issues to become leaders, educate the public about challenges and opportunities in higher education, and advocate for reforms.

Our Health Care program focuses on increasing access to quality health insurance coverage and ensuring young people have the tools to obtain the care they need. We do this through a variety of outreach channels, including community workshops on health coverage, training partner organizations on how to reach young adults, providing online information through our website and social media, and developing innovative digital applications to help consumers make health care choices.In addition to our outreach program, we also engage in policy research, develop policy solutions that increase access to quality coverage, educate the public about these solutions, and advocate for reforms.

These conversations have informed our research agenda and our efforts to advance reforms in policy and practice, with a particular focus on apprenticeships.

(Code:) (Expenses $ 100,058 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 5,333)

For more than fifteen years, YI has built a hybrid approach to engagement and organizingone that blends deep leadership training and personal growth experiences with broader grassroots advocacy activities. Young Advocates work with our teams to strengthen the voices of young people across our issue areas. This includes overseeing on-the-ground and digital organizing efforts, such as planning state and local events, including virtual events, to educate and facilitate discussions on pressing issues affecting their generation.They have the opportunity to work with our policy team to research and propose solutions to some of these challenges and to collaborate with our communications team to amplify their stories and messages.
