Part III Program: Campaign for Free College Tuition is an unique policy and advocacy organization providing information and expertise to governments and education advocacy groups intrerested in initiating or expanding free tuitlon programs at public colleges and universities. For the past four years CFCT has focussed on state government free tuition programs. With the new Administration's stated intent to institute a national free tuition program, CFCT will once again focus on federal legislation

In anticipation of this shift of focus, CFCT's annual workshop included federal as well as state staff and education advocates.
