Explanation: In 2020 and 2021, the organization, which is supported by a volunteer board of directors and part time team of contractors experienced significant challenges related to the COVID pandemic. The organization's contracted management also shift in 2021. As a result, the filing of the 990 for FY 2021 was overlooked as the team struggled to maintain operations and provide service to its membership. As the team began the process to file the 2022 990, the oversight was realized and immediately corrected.
