The Flinn Foundation
12/31/2018

Direct Charitable Activities (Part IX-A)

1. Bioscience

The Flinn Foundation supports the advancement of the biosciences in Arizona through grantmaking and coordination of Arizona's Bioscience Roadmap, which was released in 2002 and updated in 2014 to guide the growth and development of the State's bioscience sector through 2025. The Roadmap's tagline, "Advancing the Biosciences and Improving Health Outcomes" recognizes the broad spectrum within the biosciences, the emerging fields of health informatics, economics and diagnostics as well as the central role of healthcare within the bioscience sector.

$1,231,266

2. Flinn Scholars

In partnership with Arizona's three public universities, the Flinn Foundation awards 20 full-cost scholarships to Arizona's top high school seniors for eight semesters of study at one of the three state universities. The Foundation supplements the direct cost of campus study through career counseling and internships, cultural and group activities and international travel.

$593,730

3. Arts and Culture

The Flinn Foundation currently has two emphases in its support of Arizona arts and culture. One is for the initiative of Financial and Creative Health, which is a grants program that aims to identify capitalization needs and design strategies to address those needs among Arizona's largest arts and culture organizations. The other is the Arizona Cultural Data Project, which is a statewide component of a growing national program to use standardized financial and organizational data to strengthen the effectiveness of arts and culture organizations, advocates and funding parties.

$318,749

4. Civic Leadership

The Flinn Foundation supports and administers the Arizona Center for Civic Leadership (Center), which is a three-pronged program to strengthen civic leadership in Arizona. A primary component of the Center is the Flinn-Brown Civic Leadership Academy, which aims to develop future state-level leaders through non-partisan, objective seminars on policy issues, mentorship and other programs. The Center also involves a leadership collaborative to help local and regional leadership programs to develop and work together on a state-wide agenda to expand and enhance civic leadership at all levels. An ongoing communications campaign is also included to increase awareness of civic engagement, involvement, and leadership throughout the state. Additional support is provided by the Thomas R. Brown Family Foundations.
