LEADERSHIP: JLUSA provides three leadership programs for individuals that have traditionally been excluded from power and want opportunities to be active change agents in dismantling systemic oppression: 1) Emerging Leaders (EL) is an intensive community-focused two-day training specifically designed for emerging leaders organizing in communities most impacted by marginalization and incarceration. EL builds community power and coalitions so that emerging leaders have the knowledge, skills, and resources to identify, organize and advocate for the change they seek in their community. JLUSA offers community partners the option of a 3- or 6-month post-training engagement after the Emerging Leaders program to receive capacity building support and technical assistance with strategically designing and building their grassroots campaigns and/or coalitions. 2) Leading with Conviction (LwC) is a 12-month, cohort-based advanced leadership training, coaching, and mentoring program for directly impacted individuals who are already engaged in transformative change. Unlike traditional leadership development programs, LwC is specifically designed to embrace leaders' individualized leadership challenges and strengths, and sharpen their leadership behaviors.
