Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 4	An Amendment to Article IV, Section 2, of the AARP Bylaws was made in 2022 to include Associate members (under age 50) as being eligible to serve on the AARP Board of Directors. Section 2. Eligibility. Members of the AARP Board of Directors must be a Regular or Associate member as set forth in Article III, Section (1) at the time of election and continuously while serving as a member of the Board. The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of AARP is also eligible for election to the AARP Board of Directors. Article III, Section (1) Classes of Members. Membership in AARP shall consist of the following classes: a) Regular Membership. Any person of the age of fifty (50) years or older and b) Associate Membership. Any person who is a member of a group classified by the Board of Directors as eligible for associate membership.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	The Form 990 is prepared and reviewed in AARP's internal tax department. The return is then put through a secondary review which includes the AARP Controller and AARP General Counsel. After this thorough review process, the Form 990 is distributed to the Board of Directors for their review. After all issues are addressed the return is reviewed by the Chief Operating Officer prior to electronically filing with the Internal Revenue Service.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Annually, all board members and employees (including officers) are required to review the Code of Conduct, formally acknowledge their understanding of the Code, and disclose any real or potential conflicts of interest. Disclosures are reviewed by appropriate management (or in the case of a board member, the Board Chair, the Corporate Secretary's Office, and if necessary, the Governance Committee), and the Ethics & Compliance Office. The appropriate resolution plan is implemented (for example, recusal from participating in any deliberations and decisions relevant to the disclosure). The Ethics & Compliance Office monitors compliance (with the assistance of the Corporate Secretary's Office for board members) with these requirements and ensures proper follow-up as needed.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	AARP considers relevant for-profit and not-for-profit data since this is the landscape in which AARP competes for talent. Establishing the appropriate compensation for positions and jobs considers external market pricing (where possible) from an independent, third party compensation consulting firm, internal criteria, and an individual's actual performance and contribution. Internal criteria are based on a standard approach that measures the internal value of positions, including: complexity and scope of responsibility, skill set and competencies, education and experience, and the reporting relationship of the position. An individual's actual performance and contribution is measured through AARP's performance management approach and then rewarded through AARP's annual base pay merit and incentive awards programs. For the CEO, the People, Compensation & Culture Committee, which is comprised of independent directors, engaged an independent third-party compensation consultant to review and report on the competitiveness and reasonableness of the CEO's total remuneration. Based on that report, the People, Compensation & Culture Committee recommended that the Board of Directors approve of the CEO's remuneration and after review and discussion, the independent members of the Board of Directors approved the Committee's recommendation. These deliberations and actions were recorded in the Committee and Board minutes. For the Executive Vice Presidents (listed in Part VII), the compensation recommendations of the CEO are provided to the People, Compensation & Culture Committee together with external comparability data provided by an independent third-party compensation consulting firm. The People, Compensation & Culture Committee reviewed and approved the 2022 recommendations, and its deliberations and action were recorded in the Committee's minutes.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	AARP makes its Form 990 available on its website at www.aarp.org or upon request to the General Counsel's Office. AARP's audited financial statements and conflict of interest policy are also available on its website at www.aarp.org. AARP's Form 1024 will be made public upon request to AARP's Office of General Counsel. All other governing documents will be made available to the public in the event those documents are included in a filing with the Internal Revenue Service.
Part VII, Sec. A, Officers, Key Employees, and Highest Compensated Employee	AARP has a standard 40 hour work week and are the average hours disclosed on Form 990. Officers, key employees, and highest compensated employees often work in excess of that amount.

Form 990, Part XI, line 9:	Actuarial adjustments for Pension and PRHB plan 427,430,794.
Schedule R, Part V, Question 2, Transactions with Related Organizations	The AARP Insurance Plan is a grantor trust established by an Agreement and Declaration of Trust for the purpose of making group health insurance and other health-related products and services available to AARP, Inc. members. Agreements between AARP, Inc., AARP Services, Inc., and several insurance companies enable AARP-branded insurance products to be made available to AARP members. At the direction of the third party insurance carriers, the Plan pays AARP, Inc. a portion of the total premiums collected for the use of its intellectual property, which is reported as royalties in the consolidated statements of activities.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part V: Transactions with related organizations, line 2(a)-(d), row (10)	AARP and AARP Foundation, its affiliated charity, share mailing lists. AARP does not rent its mailing list to other organizations, so a fair market value of the benefit to the Foundation has not been established. The AARP list is much larger and thus presumably more valuable than the Foundation list. Moreover, the vast majority of names on the AARP Foundation list are already on the AARP list, as they are also AARP members.
