Return Reference	Explanation
FROM 990, SCHEDULE D, PART X, LINE 2 FIN 48	Since the Organization is exempt from federal and state income tax liability, no provision is made for current or deferred income taxes. The Organization uses the same accounting methods for tax and financial reporting. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an entity in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. The Organization's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three years after they are filed. The open years are: 2023, 2022 and 2021.

FORM 990, SCHEDULE I, PART I, LINE 2	Describe the organization's procedures for monitoring the use of the grant funds in the United States: CHIRLA occasionally makes grants to similar, partner organizations that are doing similar work, such as providing immigration legal services or advocating for immigration reform. These are typically related to specific projects in which CHIRLA is also directly involved. For these types of grants, agreements are drawn up and signed by senior management of both entities before funds are issued. CHIRLA also makes small contributions to support the work of partner organizations, such as gala sponsorships or purchasing tickets for award dinners. A thank-you letter or receipt is typically considered sufficient documentation for these donations.
