Dear Sir or Madam:

This is in response to your request of August 24, 2007, regarding your organization's tax-exempt status.

In January 1992 we issued a determination letter that recognized your organization as exempt from federal income tax. Our records indicate that your organization is currently exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Our records indicate that your organization is also classified as a public charity under sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Our records indicate that contributions to your organization are deductible under section 170 of the Code, and that you are qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under section 2055, 2106 or 2522 of the Internal Revenue Code.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely,

Michele M. Sullivan, Oper. Mgr.

We changed your mailing address

We processed a request to change your address to the address shown above. If you didn't authorize an address change, please contact us immediately.

What you need to do

If the address change is correct, you don't need to do anything.

If you didn't authorize a change of address, contact us immediately by calling the number listed above. If you prefer, you can write us at the address listed above; however, we can process your information more quickly if you call. Please include a copy of this notice with any written communication.

What you need to know

If we find any issues with an account, we send a letter or notice to your address of record. We strongly caution any employer against changing the address of record to that of a payroll service provider or other third party as it may significantly limit the employer's ability to be informed of tax matters involving the business. The employer is ultimately responsible for depositing and paying all federal employment tax liabilities.

For more information, visit www.irs.gov and search keywords, "Change of Address" or "Outsourcing Payroll Duties."
