(TO BE USED, OR COPIED, FOR)

---

**PUBLIC INSPECTION ONLY****

---

NOTE

Under Internal Revenue Regulations, tax-exempt charitable organizations generally must provide requesters with COPIES of:

- Its approved exemption applications, all required attachments and any related correspondence with the IRS, and
- Its three most recent annual information returns (Form 990), including all schedules and attachments (but not the names and addresses of contributors).

In-person requests: A member of the public may request to inspect the documents at any principal office of the organization. The entity must provide the information requested that same day. However, if the request places an “unreasonable burden” on the organization, the staff must provide copies of the requested information no later than the next business day after the unusual circumstances cease to exist (limited to a maximum of five business days after the request).

Written requests: Written requests made by fax, mail, email, or overnight service, which include the requester’s address, must be honored within 30 days of receipt.

Website alternative: Instead of providing copies, an organization may make the documents available on either its own or another organization's website. If it uses this option, it has to: (1) provide an exact replica of the document as was filed with the IRS; (2) advise requesters how to access the forms on the web; (3) the site should charge no access fee and require no special software or hardware to download. Organizations that post this information on the Internet still must honor in-person requests to view the applicable documents.

Permissible charges: Tax-exempt organizations may charge a reasonable copying fee, up to $1 for the first page and 15 cents for each additional page, plus actual postage costs.

Penalties: An organization that fails to comply with the new disclosure requirements may be subject to the following penalties:

- Annual Information Return – Form 990 - $20 per day for as long as the failure continues, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each failure to provide an annual return.
- Exemption Application - $20 per day with no maximum.
- An organization that willfully fails to comply with these public inspection rules can be subject to an additional $5,000 penalty.

Private foundation exempt: The new disclosure rules don't yet apply to private foundations. They must still make a copy of their annual return available for public inspection at their principal office for a period of 180 days after publishing a notice of availability.

Donor Information: Please note that donor information is not open to public inspection and has been excluded from this copy.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

experiencing lower property values, higher crime, and stifled urban revitalization. The entire city of Dallas suffers because of costly city maintenance incurred through heightened police activity, repeated code inspections, additional trash clean ups and demolitions.

THE SOLUTION

Founded in 2009, ACT is a justice organization located in Dallas, Texas that empowers and disciples inner-city residents, through legal advocacy, to seek resolution of crime-ridden and hazardous properties in their neighborhoods. ACT's vision is for inner-city residents to experience God's redemptive plan through safer communities free from crime and urban blight.

We believe God's redemptive plan is both for the physical neighborhoods ACT serves as well as the spiritual lives of the men, women and children who live in those neighborhoods. Freeing individuals from the oppression of crime and urban blight gives us an amazing platform to share the spiritual freedom that only comes through a saving relationship with Jesus Christ. By working alongside the community to hold the owners of drug houses and hazardous properties accountable, ACT promotes safer neighborhoods, sustainable systemic change, and long-term prosperity for people living in ACT's target neighborhoods.

We seek to affirm and protect the God-given dignity and legal rights of inner city residents to live in a safe neighborhood by empowering them to be advocates for community transformation in their own communities.

We work on a grass-roots level to organize, educate, and counsel local residents about their rights while at the same time using a unique system of one-on-one, door-to-door prayer, outreach and ministry that allows us to care for both the spiritual and physical needs of our clients. We then partner residents who desire change with volunteer legal teams to hold the owners of drug houses and hazardous properties accountable. By eliminating crime and bringing revitalization to the neighborhoods where our clients live, we seek to point our clients to a merciful and mighty savior who loves justice and is their Advocate and Redeemer.

CRIME PREVENTION

We desire to prevent healthy properties owned by the residents of our target community from becoming future magnets for crime. Accordingly, ACT provides wills and other related estate planning documents to our clients. Doing so gives property owners in the community an opportunity to obtain the necessary legal documentation to assure that their property is conveyed to their heirs without complication.

PROVEN RESULTS

Since the founding of ACT in 2009, the residents of our first two target neighborhoods have seen reported crime reduced by nearly 50% through the resolution of crime-ridden properties. Additionally, given

ACT's focus in residential areas, one of our greatest impacts has been

on non-violent residential crimes (i.e. vehicle thefts and residential burglaries), which have declined by over 60% since ACT's work began.

Not only are we seeing crime reduced, but we are also seeing residents come to a saving faith in Jesus Christ and exercise their faith on behalf of their neighborhood.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11: The Form 990 is prepared by an independent CPA firm, reviewed by the President and Finance Committee, and then submitted to the full board for review before the return is filed with the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: ACT requires annual disclosure of any possible conflicts of interest and monitors all transactions for any board members, officers, or their businesses. There are no conflicts at this time. If a potential conflict were to be identified, the independent members of the board would vote on whether or not to participate in the transaction. All such transactions must be at or below fair market value.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a: The independent board of directors sets and approves officer compensation annually using comparability data. The process and decision are documented in the board minutes.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19: ACT makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public during regular business hours at its principal office.
