Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

Every day, children are harmed by America's broken child welfare, juvenile justice, education, and healthcare systems. Through relentless strategic advocacy and legal action, Children's Rights holds governments accountable for keeping kids safe and healthy. Children's Rights has made a lasting impact, protecting hundreds of thousands of vulnerable children throughout the country and we are poised to help millions more. They are depending on us...and you.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

In 2019, Children's Rights continued to effect transformational change for America's most vulnerable children:

Children's Rights' voice was prominent in advocating against practices that inflict harm on immigrant children, including the continued separation of children from their parents, their indefinite detention with or without family members, and the halting of necessary education, recreation and legal services. Our focus continues to be on the long-term harm that is done to children psychologically, emotionally and developmentally as a result of these policies.

A case brought by Children's Rights in Missouri resulted in a groundbreaking settlement that will stop the dangerous practice of giving children powerful psychotropic drugs without proper oversight and monitoring. These medications are often used as chemical straightjackets to control behavior, in lieu of the mental health care these troubled and traumatized children so desperately need. The case sets a legal precedent that has the potential to address and end this practice in child welfare systems nationwide.

In a huge victory for children in a case we brought on behalf of 1,900 children in
