ARTICLE I. MEETINGS

1. Annual Meetings. An annual meeting shall be held once every calendar year for the purposes of electing directors and transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. The annual meeting shall be held at the time and place designated by the Board of Directors.

a. The following orders of business shall be addressed during the annual meeting unless decided otherwise by the Board of Directors via written notice:

- i. Election of new directors
- ii. Reviewing the annual report
- iii. Reconciling the balance sheet
- iv. Any other transaction of such other business as may be properly brought before the meeting

b. The annual meeting shall take place at the following location unless determined otherwise via written notice: Remotely.

c. Unless it falls on a holiday or otherwise is designated by the Board of Directors via written notice, the Directors shall meet for their annual meeting on the 2nd Monday of January. If this date falls on a holiday, the Board shall select an alternate date and send written notice at least two weeks in advance of the meeting.

Adopted by resolution by the Board Of Directors on April 10, 2023

2. Special Meetings. Special meetings may be requested by the Board of Directors. A special meeting of members is not required to be held at a geographic location if the meeting is held by means of teleconference or another form of electronic communications in a manner pursuant to which all members have the chance to read and/or hear the proceedings substantially concurrent with the occurrence of the proceedings, raise points on matters submitted to the members, pose questions, and make any desired comments.

3. Notice. The following amount of written notice of all regular meetings shall be provided under this section or as otherwise required by law: three weeks. The following amount of written notice of all special meetings shall be provided under this section or as otherwise required by law: three weeks. The notice shall include the date, hour, and location of the meeting and, if for a special meeting, the purpose of the meeting. Such notice shall be mailed or emailed to all directors of record at the address shown on the corporate books, at least three weeks prior to the meeting. Such notice shall be deemed effective when sent by email or ordinary U.S. mail, properly addressed, with paid postage.

4. Quorum. A quorum of the Directors shall be the following: 60%. In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the directors may delay and reschedule the meeting to another time without further notice. If a quorum is represented at a rescheduled meeting, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the meeting as originally scheduled. The directors present at a meeting represented by a quorum may continue to transact business until adjournment, even if the withdrawal of some directors results in a representation of less than a quorum.

5. Informal Actions. Any action required to be taken, or which may be taken, at a meeting, may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice if a consent in writing, set forth the action so taken, is signed by the Directors with respect to the subject matter of the vote.

ARTICLE II. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

6. Role of Directors. The Board of Directors shall be responsible for having the authority of managing the affairs of the Nonprofit directly and/or by delegation.

7. Number of Directors. The organization shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of 7-13 directors.

8. Election and Term of Office. The Directors shall be elected by a majority vote at the annual meeting. Each Director shall serve 2 years, or until and unless a successor has been elected and qualified.

9. Dues: Each member of the Board of Directors shall pay the following in yearly dues on a monthly basis or at the annual meeting for each year that they remain a member of the Board: Total yearly dues is $130.

10. Quorum. A quorum of the Directors shall be the following: 60%.

11. Regular Meetings. The Board of Directors shall meet immediately after their election for the purpose of electing its new officers, appointing new committee chairpersons, and for transacting such other business as may be deemed appropriate. The Board of Directors may provide, by resolution, for additional regular meetings without notice other than the notice provided by the resolution.

12. Special Meetings. Special meetings may be requested by the Board of Directors. A special meeting may be requested by providing three weeks written notice by United States mail, effective when mailed. Minutes of the meeting shall be sent to the Board of Directors within two weeks after the meeting. A special meeting of members is not required to be held at a geographic location if the meeting is held by means of the internet or other electronic communication in a manner pursuant to which all members have the opportunity to read and/or hear the proceedings substantially concurrent with the occurrence of the proceedings, note on matters submitted to the members, pose questions, and make comments.

13. Procedures. The vote of a majority of the Directors present at a properly called meeting as dictated by these Bylaws at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors unless the vote of a greater number is required by law or by these Bylaws for a particular resolution. A Director of the organization who is present at a meeting at the Board of Directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless their dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting. The Board shall keep written minutes of its proceedings in its permanent records. The minutes will include, at the last, names of all members present, resolutions proposed and voted upon, and any Director abstentions or objections to resolutions.

14. Vacancies and Removals. A Director shall be subject to removal, with or without cause, at a meeting called for that purpose. Any vacancy that occurs on the Board of Directors, whether by death, resignation, removal, or any other reason, may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining Directors. A Director elected to fill a vacancy shall serve the remaining term of their predecessor or until a successor has been elected and qualified. If all Directors resign or are removed, any Officer shall hold a special meeting for the purpose of electing a new Director or Board of Directors.

15. Resignation. If a Director wishes to resign from their directorial position, they shall do so in the following manner: A director can resign from his or her position by having a zero balance on his or her annual dues, for that fiscal year, and by providing 60 days notice of resignation.

16. Committees/Taskforces. To the extent permitted by Pennsylvania law, the Board of Directors may appoint from its members a committee or taskforce, temporary or permanent, and designate the duties, powers, and authorities of such committees/task forces. The committees/task forces shall have a specific purpose and the Board of Directors, in creating a committee/taskforce, shall outline the parameters of the committee/taskforce, including, but not limited to, meetings, notice, quorum requirements, and all other pertinent procedures.
