

Empowering young leaders to take action on real world problems

We engage & empower our youth to think critically about the real-world, environmental and societal problems of our time, & to devise creative, community-based solutions to tackle them, so that they may become change agents in their communities and in turn, the world.

STUDENTS LEARN:

Leadership & Team Building
Critical Thinking & Problem Solving
Collaboration & Communication
Global & Entrepreneurial Literacy
Community Service

Select Partner Schools

MARYLAND

Kennedy High School - Leadership Training Institute

Thomas S. Wootton High School

NEW JERSEY

Barack Obama Green Charter High School
Bergen Academies
Union City High School
Garden State Scholars
Gottesman RTW Academy (7th & 8th grade)
Morris County School of Technology
Morristown High School STEM Academy Mt Vernon School (7th & 8th grade)

Rahway Middle and High School
Randolph High School - Environmental Science
Rutgers Prep High School
Science Park High School
Stuart Country Day School of the Sacred Heart

NEW YORK

School for International Studies
Urban Assembly School of Global Commerce
The New Design High School

VIRGINIA

Bishop O'Connell High School

WASHINGTON DC

Brookland Middle School
Capital City Charter School
St. Anthony Catholic
Washington Leadership Academy Public Charter School (XQ Super School)

Select Partner Universities

Catholic University of America
Fairleigh Dickinson University - Rothman Institute
Georgetown University - Bioethics & McDonough School of Business
Princeton University - Keller Center

Funders

Exelon Corporation
First Energy Foundation
TD Bank Charitable Foundation
Picatinny Arsenal - ARDEC
PSE&G Foundation
Wells Fargo Foundation

SGAPLeaders.org