Campaign to STOP GE Trees - We produced a sign on letter to the Forest Stewardship Council as well as a twitter campaign with daily tweets targeting the FSC on the GE trees issue every day of their General Assembly. These tweets were widely shared; We released GE Trees: No Solution to Climate Change statement denouncing the proposed use of GE trees in climate change schemes. The report was released and distributed in English, Spanish, Portuguese and French; We also mobilized the public around the USDA public comment period on GE American chestnut (D58) with overwhelmingly rejection of the petition by researchers requesting permission to release the D58 into forests with no monitoring or regulation; We published a Major feature article in Truthout during Earth Week 2021. Campaign Coordinator and GJEP ED Anne Petermann collaborated with the Independent Media Institute to create a feature article for Truthout, which highlighted the many arguments against release of the GEAC into forests, including a section highlighting Indigenous resistance to GE trees. After its publication there, the article was distributed by IMI through its network of online publication and picked up by dozens of outlets, reaching millions.
