

LINN COUNTY ANIMAL RESCUE

PO BOX 2669 LEBANON, OR 97355

WWW.LCARHORSE.ORG

501C3 NON PROFIT

JULY 2011

Horse owners losing their property. Foreclosures are a big problem when the economy is down, loving owners who want the best for their animals are having to try to find a place for them. Most rescues are operating at full capacity, leaving some of the unfortunate horses on the FREE list with a questionable future. LCAR has been able to take a few animals that have been caught in this situation. With our strict adoption policy we hope to find them all a loving home, they all deserve a 2nd chance.

Meet COCO

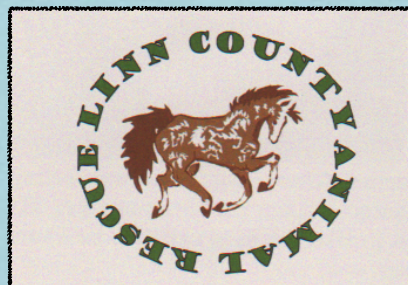

Coco was one of the many that was caught in an unfortunate situation. A beautiful health Appy mare, smart, well trained, and deserving of another chance. We have also acquired two gray well cared for Arabs.

In working with the Humane Society of the United States we are trying to help place 7 horses that need homes because of owners illness.

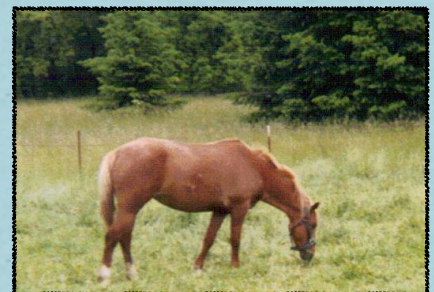

SAPHIRE READY TO BE ADOPTED.

Looking for a loving home, Sorrel 15 hd mare quarter horse type.

Speaking for those who can't.

SADIE, abused horses do recover and make wonderful partners.

Fund Raising and Events for donations to care for the horses

LCAR
volunteers

The LCAR volunteers put together a number of events to help the horses and educate the public about animal cruelty. We are available for presentations to clubs or associations, contact us to set up a time and date.

July 16th, open house 11 am to 4 pm
39389 Plagman Dr Lebanon, Oregon.

July 21st thru 24th Linn County Fair. Come look over our pictures and programs, we will be close to the front gate by the Linn County Sheriff's Office display.

See the new website www.lcarhorse.org and join "linnrescue" on Face Book, Twitter, and My Space. Lots of information, pictures, updates, and friends. Get involved with the different

LINN COUNTY FAIR

Booth at the County Fair July 21 thru 24.. Lots of pictures and information available about the horses and how to help them.

On going raffle for a Traeger BBQ to be given away the last day of the Fair. Other items also available with donations.

conversations and discover how to help the horses as a volunteer or with a donation.

Scarlett's Friends has been set up to provide an easy way for animal lovers to make a monthly commitment (as little as $5 a month) directly to the rescue to help the horses in need.

Mission: To provide a safe and nurturing environment for abused, abandoned, neglected, and elderly horses. To work with the public to educate and help caring individuals keep their equine friends. To find all of our rehabilitated horses a healthy, happy, forever home. It is not only what you do but the difference you make.

WORKING TO GET ACCREDITATION FROM GFAS

Linn County Animal Rescue becomes first Oregon sanctuary verified by GFAS and founder wins sheriff's award of merit

Verification identifies LCAR as providing humane and responsible care of the animals

GRANTS FROM

- ASPICA
- Humane Society of the United States
- American Humane
- Meacham
- PetSmart Charities
- SummerLee