Cross also gives financial grants to overseas churches

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? [] Yes [X] No

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? [] Yes [X] No

(Revenue $) Focus on Medical - Cross International medical aid focused on needs in nine countries - Afghanistan, the Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, Rwanda, Vietnam and Zambia. This outreach has had a wide-ranging impact. For example, medicines were supplied to Christian churches in rural Vietnam so local believers could serve and build relationships with the poor in their communities. In another case, home-based medical care was provided to HIV/AIDS victims and other chronically ill patients in an impoverished area of Zambia. Ministry partners such as these rely on Cross donations to keep their medicine shelves stocked, their equipment up-to-date and their professional staff employed. By equipping hospitals and clinics with resources necessary to provide services to their communities, Cross

In all, about 25 individual in-country partners were involved in the distribution of hundreds of thousands of Cross-sponsored meals throughout the year. Many food shipments were specifically earmarked for distribution to infants and children, who are especially vulnerable to the negative effects of chronic malnutrition, such as mental and physical disabilities. One of the best ways to get food into the mouths of the hungry has been to partner with schools in developing countries. This strategy has

Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

Caribbean providing monetary and material aid to meet the needs of the poor for food, clothing, water, medicines, medical treatment, education, housing and livelihood. Cross also engages in relief and recovery efforts in response to disasters such as the humanitarian crisis caused by Hurricane Sandy. In 2012, Cross distributed aid in 25 countries.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

and ministries serving the poor, to access local resources and thereby support the local economies.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

helps thousands of families who would have had no other option for quality medical care.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c, Program Service Accomplishments:

successfully decreased malnutrition rates in the targeted communities while also improving school performance among the children who are fed. A large percentage of the Organization's nutritional aid was sent in the form of "Vitafood" - pre-packaged, nutrient-rich meals that are easy to cook and serve and are scientifically developed to meet the needs of malnourished children.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d, Other Program Services:

4d Additional Program Services - Education

Name of the organization Cross International, Inc.	Employer identification number 65-1086387

Cross International targeted educational needs in seven countries:

Bolivia, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras and Peru. Although educational opportunities are technically offered by the governments in many developing countries, the quality is often substandard, and the education is not really "free." The public schools charge small tuition fees that are still too high for parents to pay, in addition to required supplies and uniforms that many families simply cannot afford. As a result, drop-out rates are enormous. To reverse this trend, Cross has partnered with church-run schools that focus on meeting the needs of poor children who would otherwise be left behind. With our support, these schools have provided a quality education at minimal or no cost to the students. Cross International's funding also supported special tutoring programs that helped needy and at-risk children get the most out of their education.

4d Additional Program Services - Water Projects

Last year we saw the completion of a large-scale project, begun in 2011, to install water systems and sanitation facilities in 14 poor communities that lacked access to clean, abundant water. Cross also supported efforts to dig wells in remote Zambian villages and provide potable water for hundreds of poor families in southern Vietnam. Since water is crucial for both human consumption and support of agriculture and livestock, Cross targets both needs. The effort to provide safe drinking water typically involves comprehensive projects that serve many people in the surrounding communities. For example, the water project in Zambia involved not only drilling wells but also training local families in sanitary hygiene practices and protecting the water table through construction of latrines. The results of these projects have been dramatic. Dehydration and water-borne illnesses have decreased, infant mortality has plummeted and women no longer need to walk long distances to fetch small amounts of water from contaminated rivers. By establishing new sources of safe water that can serve communities for years to come, Cross International's projects are saving lives.

4d Additional Program Services - Housing

Cross International undertook housing programs in five countries: Guatemala, Nicaragua, Haiti, the Philippines and Vietnam. Cross supported a house-construction effort in the Philippines that transforms slums into vibrant neighborhoods anchored by new, active community centers; and in Guatemala, Cross helped provide emergency shelter for families fleeing domestic abuse.

4d Additional Program Services - Shipping

Cross International's shipping program uses monetary donations to transport and distribute donated goods ranging from food and medicine to clothes and school supplies. A donation of just $1 can place $20 worth of aid - or much more - into the hands of the poor or the ministries serving them. Cross also purchases specific goods on the worldwide market and ships them directly to the partners who need them. By buying in bulk and buying where the cost is lowest, Cross is able to realize much greater savings than when we send cash grants for our partner ministries to purchase the items themselves. Another benefit of shipping goods rather than sending funds is that Cross can provide crucial medicines and medical supplies that are not locally available.

This support keeps hospitals and clinics well-stocked so that doctors don't have to turn patients away untreated. In 2012, Cross shipped goods to churches and ministries in nine countries: the Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Kenya, Nicaragua, Rwanda and the U.S.

4d Additional Program Services - Disaster Relief

In early 2012, Cross shipped 90,000 meals to Kenya to help families still suffering from the aftermath of a major East Africa drought. Cross also raised funds for flood and typhoon relief in the Philippines and sent supplies to ministries serving the victims of Hurricane Sandy in New York.

4d Additional Program Services - General Support & Other

Cross International is uniquely positioned to help overseas ministries with their specific or unexpected needs. In each of these cases, a ministry partner was able to obtain a specific resource quickly and effectively, allowing them to continue their work without disruption.

4d Additional Program Services - Mission Education

Cross International's overall mission includes educating Christians in the United States about the needs of the poor overseas and highlighting a biblical basis for responding to that poverty. This is important to the Organization's goal of developing stronger relationships between the U.S. and the developing world. Cross achieved this goal by communicating directly to American Christians through Christian radio. The ministry's day-long and two-day radio presentations were made to the public on radio stations throughout the country. Along with conventional radio, Cross also broadcast on satellite radio and over the Internet to reach some of its listeners.

4d Additional Program Services - Project Development

In order to ensure the proper use of donated funds and goods, Cross International regularly monitors and meets with overseas partners. The Vice President of Missions and a staff of field officers made regular visits to these ministries, reviewing requests for assistance, monitoring the use of previous gifts and providing professional assistance with accounting or project development issues. These project development services have helped Cross partners grow more effectively, provide a better outreach to the poor and maintain greater stability in the community.
