of the Capital Region, Inc.

We have reviewed the accompanying financial statements of the Underground Railroad History Project of the Capital Region, Inc. (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related statements of activities and functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements. A review includes primarily applying analytical procedures to management's financial data and making inquiries of management. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error.

Accountant's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to conduct the review engagement in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services promulgated by the Accounting and Review Services Committee of the AICPA. Those standards require us to perform procedures to obtain limited assurance as a basis for reporting whether we are aware of any material modifications that should be made to the financial statements for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. We believe that the results of our procedures provide a reasonable basis for our conclusion.

We are required to be independent of the Underground Railroad History Project of the Capital Region, Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements related to our review.

Accountant's Conclusion

1. ORGANIZATION

Underground Railroad History Project of the Capital Region, Inc. (the “Underground Railroad”) is a not-for-profit corporation formed in 2003 and is exempt from federal and state income taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The corporation was formed to promote and encourage original historical research on the history of the Underground Railroad, especially in Albany and the Capital Region of New York; to gather, preserve, display and make available for study the appropriate artifact, relics, books, manuscripts, papers, photographs and other records and materials; to encourage the suitable marking of appropriate places of historic interest; and to acquire by purchase, gift, or otherwise the title to or the custody and control of appropriate historic sites and structures, and preserve and maintain such sites and structures.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Financial Statement Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognized in accordance with a five-step model as follows:

- Identify the contract with the customer
- Identify the performance obligation(s) in the contract
- Determine the transaction price
- Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligation(s) in the contract
- Recognize revenue when earned or as performance obligation(s) are satisfied

Contributions and grants, including unconditional promises to give, are recorded as net assets with or without donor restrictions depending on the existence or nature of any donor restrictions when pledged.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

The Underground Railroad established an allowance for doubtful accounts based on management’s evaluation of collectability. The allowance for doubtful accounts was $0 at December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Historic Properties

Historic properties are stated at cost. No allowance for depreciation has been provided for historic properties as the Underground Railroad believes the properties have a historic value that is worth preserving perpetually and has the technological and financial ability to protect and preserve the properties.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Net Assets

Net assets without donor restrictions include revenues generated from providing services, investing in income-producing assets and general public support. Additionally, general public support, which has been designated by the Board of Directors, if any, for a particular use would also be classified as without donor restrictions since the restriction is subject to change at the Board's discretion.

Net assets with donor restrictions, if any, are comprised of assets, the use of which has been restricted by the donor for a particular purpose or of endowments established by various donors which are invested in perpetuity to provide a permanent source of revenue. The Underground Railroad had no net assets with donor restrictions at December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Functional Allocation and Expenses

The costs of providing the various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statements of activities and functional expenses. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs benefitted. Salaries are allocated based on estimates of total time spent, while other expenses are allocated based on estimates of the resources used.

Management Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and disclosures. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair Value

The Accounting Standards Codification requires expanded disclosures about fair value measurements and establishes a three-level hierarchy for fair value measurements based on the observable inputs to the valuation of an asset or liability at the measurement date. Fair value is defined as the price that the Underground Railroad would receive upon selling an asset or pay to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants. It prioritizes the inputs to the valuation techniques used to measure fair value by giving the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements), and the lowest priority to measurements involving significant unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements).

DECEMBER 31, 2023 AND 2022

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instrument for which it is practicable to estimate that value:

Cash, accounts and grants receivable, notes payable, accounts payable and accrued expenses and deferred revenue - The carrying amounts approximate fair value because of the short maturity of these instruments.

Investments – Investments are carried at fair market value using level 1 measurements.

Historic properties and construction in progress - No attempt has been made to determine the fair value of historic properties or construction in progress.

Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes

The Accounting Standards Codification requires entities to disclose in their financial statements the nature of any uncertainty in their tax position. The Underground has not recognized any benefits or liabilities from uncertain tax positions in 2023 and believes it has no uncertain tax positions for which it is reasonably possible that will significantly increase or decrease net assets. Generally, federal and state authorities may examine the Underground Railroad's income tax returns for three years from the date of filing, consequently; income tax returns for years prior to 2020 are no longer subject to examination by tax authorities.

Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events or transactions as to any potential material impact on operations or financial position occurring through July 24, 2024, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. No such events or transactions were identified.

3. INVESTMENTS

9. LIQUIDITY

The Underground Railroad’s liquidity management policy is to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities and other obligations come due.

Cash	$	201,846
