Primary Exempt Purpose

Primary Exempt Purpose

Primary exempt purpose: Educational. Unadilla Community Farm Education Center Inc's mission is to showcase and teach climate-resilient agriculture while increasing food access and access to herbalism for low-income, low-access communities. As a member of USDA's Conservation Stewardship Program and the first Otsego County recipient of New York State's Climate Resilient Farming program, we showcase a diversity of USDA NRCS recommended conservation practices. We run a variety of education and training programs on sustainable agriculture. We also help to increase food access and access to herbalism by donating 100% of our produce to food pantries, mutual aid groups, and herbal clinics, which in 2023 amounted to $43,598.35 worth of produce distributed to 12 partner organizations. By increasing the amount of fresh produce available for low-income, low-access communities, we both improve health and nutrition for communities in need and reduce family food budgets.

of the food forest, and 47 participants through Day Volunteering and Community Volunteer Days. The Food Access Fellowship was a season-long, in-depth educational opportunity with a dual focus on both classroom and hands-on learning, wherein a total of 6 Fellows learned how to efficiently design and implement sustainable farming practices at-scale. Additionally, guided tours of the food forest were held twice during 2023, providing an educational opportunity to 9 tour participants. Finally, our Day Volunteering and Community Volunteer Days offered an opportunity for the surrounding community to come help out on the farm, learn new gardening skills, and assist with production and harvesting for our food access and herbal aid work. Volunteers can count their hours towards experiential course credit requirements, community service requirements, and volunteer paid time off programs for corporate employees. The Beginning Farmer Training Program incurred $25,597.33 in programmatic expenses during 2023.

Second Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

for their clients. Our nonprofit is located in, and serves communities in, USDA designated low-income, low-access, urban & rural food deserts, meaning areas with high poverty rates where the nearest supermarket is 10+ miles away. Feedback from the food pantry partners that we work with across the region indicates that they are under increased pressure to address rising food insecurity, which has been exacerbated by the pandemic, inflation, and recent SNAP cuts. Pantry partners frequently share with us that there is a lack of fresh produce available to their clients, and that some fresh produce programs that were available as a result of COVID relief funding have since dried up. By increasing the amount of high-quality fresh produce available to their clients, we can both improve nutrition for food insecure communities and reduce their family food budgets, freeing up family funds for other needs. In 2023, the Food Access Program delivered free produce to 9 food pantry partners across Central New York State, donating produce valued at $25,552.08. Our food pantry partners then distributed our produce to an estimated 3,950 people, based on the estimates of our food pantry partners on how many people they serve on a regular basis. The Food Access Program incurred $25,950.03 in programmatic expenses during 2023.

Third Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

health access, particularly for economically disadvantaged and marginalized communities. Our herbal aid partners fill an important gap by providing free herbal health services to low-income and uninsured people who would otherwise fall through the cracks in the U.S. healthcare system. Additionally, distributing free herbal medicine to marginalized communities serves to reclaim plant medicine traditions that have been historically erased by the for-profit pharmaceutical industry. We provide fresh medicinal herbs to our herbal aid partners at no cost, including free delivery within a 90 minute radius of the farm and free shipping via priority mail in insulated coolers to preserve freshness. Our partners then utilize our herb donations to provide free herbal services including health & wellness consultations, internal and external herbal preparations, and supplies for home medicine making, particularly for low-income, BIPOC, unhoused, and immigrant communities. In 2023, we donated medicinal herbs valued at $18,046 to 3 herbal clinics across New York State. Our herbal aid partners then distributed our herbs and derivative herbal products to an estimated 500 people, based on the estimates of our herbal aid partners on how many people they serve on a regular basis. The Herbal Aid Program incurred $18,954.22 in programmatic expenses during 2023.
