

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Statement

The American Harp Society is committed to supporting a diverse and inclusive membership where all perspectives are heard and valued. We believe that respect and inclusion inspire creativity. We embrace the sharing of a broad range of ideas, experiences, viewpoints, and creative approaches between our members to empower a vibrant, supportive harp community.

Adopted by the Board of Directors 2/16/2021

Code of Ethics

The American Harp Society Inc., is committed to promoting honesty, integrity, and transparency. The AHS asks its members, when engaged in Society activities and/or when representing the Society in the community at large: to maintain the highest standards of professional conduct; to treat everyone with courtesy, fairness, and respect; to be accountable for their actions; and to strive for the highest levels of service, performance, and social responsibility in pursuit of the goals and the objectives of the Society.

This Code is part of a broader set of organizational policies and compliance procedures. This Code is not intended to supersede or materially alter current organizational policies and procedures
