adult daycare centers in the nation, celebrated 48 years of compassionate and innovative services in May 2024. The Center has long set the standard for care in the entire region and is Virginia's most comprehensive in terms of services, its state-of-the-art facility, and its support for caregivers.

Center services are based on a Wellness Model of person-centered care including wellness programs like strength training, yoga, arts and crafts, Zumba, and reminiscence activities to stimulate memory; all based on individual needs.

Since 1980 the Center has subsidized the cost for those who may otherwise not be able to afford services, through support from foundations, corporations, and individual donors. Circle Center is a provider for the Cardinal Care program (formerly CCC+), managed care for both Medicare and Medicaid eligible, which serves high risk individuals in a more comprehensive and coordinated way across their acute and long-term care needs. Also, most long-term care insurance pays for Center services.

The Center's goals include continued growth to meet the needs of the rapidly expanding population of older adults aging in place with their families and in neighborhoods across the seven counties and three cities served in 2023-24, while maintaining best practices for the provision of this care provided by its multidisciplinary team of licensed and certified staff.
