Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Organization's Process to Review Form 990

The Form 990 is prepared by a CPA who is experienced with non-profit organizations. A draft is sent to the Executive Director for review and then to the Board for their review. Once all questions have been answered, and any necessary changes have been made, the Form 990 is e-filed. When the 990 has been accepted, a copy of the acceptance and final return are sent to the Board.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

All employees and volunteers, including board members, are required to communicate any direct or indirect financial interest in transactions with the organization. An interested person is given the opportunity to provide all information pertaining to the transaction, and is then recused from further discussion. The board, or remaining board members, will evaluate the arrangement, determine if a conflict exists and if so, the chair of the board or committee shall appoint a disinterested person to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction. Using this information, the board will then decide the appropriate action necessary by majority vote.
