		Expenses (Required for section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations; optional for others.)
What is the organization's primary exempt purpose? nurture a love for music in K-12 youth by providing exceptional and accessible music education through community support and advocacy.
Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.
28 In School Residency Program: Music Orchard Richmonds In School Teaching Artist Program supports the schools of Richmond, Hanover, Chesterfield, Henrico, and beyond by providing supplemental instruction from Teaching Artists in the form of sectionals, lessons (individual and group), and ensemble coachings. MOR can provide Teaching Artists for both orchestra and band programs. Teaching Artists are available to visit schools as often as needed to work with students and supplement instruction already being given. While much of our work takes the form of a semester long residency, we encourage schools to book single sessions as well. All Teaching Artists are drawn from the most qualified and experienced teachers and performers in the Richmond area, and extensively background checked. In the 24/25 school year, this program served an estimated 40 students. Expenses listed here are direct expenses, but this program also has indirect expenses allocated to it. This program also has a high number of in kind donations such as space rental estimated around $17500. (Grants $ 2,000) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here <input type="checkbox"/>	28a	19,161
29 Senior Regional Orchestra Workshop: Music Orchard Richmonds SRO Workshop for Strings is a dynamic day-long experience designed for middle and high school string students preparing for Senior Regional Orchestra (SRO) auditions. Led by professional Teaching Artists and regional adjudicators, this workshop offers intensive coaching on audition excerpts, scales, and sight-reading, all in a supportive and motivating environment. Students receive expert guidance, personalized feedback, and the chance to play alongside peers from across the Richmond region. Whether auditioning for the first time or aiming to sharpen your skills, this workshop helps students feel confident, prepared, and inspired. This program served approximately 38 students in the 24/25 fiscal year. It has a low amount of indirect costs from administration and general expenses. This program has in kind donations of about $800. (Grants $ 0) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here <input type="checkbox"/>	29a	3,363
30 After School Programming: Music Orchard Richmonds After School Programming collaborates with pre-existing After School Programs to provide a music lesson component. In 24/25 MOR partnered with two separate programs: Peter Paul Development Center After School Academy Next Up RVA Students receive lessons, practice support, instruments to use, and additional enrichment activities with host organizations. In the 24/25 school year this program served an estimated 36 students. This program has a high amount of in kind donations including space rental and volunteer support totaling the equivalent of an estimated $16,700 It also has indirect costs such as administration and general organization expenses.
