990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2 - Grantmakers Explanation For Monitoring Use of Funds Outside US	"For cash assistance (Community Grants), The Global Climbing Initiative holds a competitive application process twice annually. The selection process includes evaluation of the applicant's eligibility and application strength, based on location, the presence of local leadership in their organization, feasibility of the proposed project, and mission alignment with our organization. Selected grant recipients meet with members of our team for a project kick off meeting to define project deliverables (such as photos and written project reports) as well as impact metrics to be collected. GCI team members continue to be an advising resource throughout the course of the grant project. Upon the culmination of the grant project and submission of deliverables and impact metrics, the grant recipient and GCI team members have a meeting to wrap up the project and deduce lessons learned. For noncash assistance (Gear Distribution), The Global Climbing Initiative receives applications on a rolling basis. Applicant organizations are asked to explain the reason for the gear request and the impact that the gear would create upon their programs. Applicant organizations are approved on the basis of mission alignment with our organization and availability of gear in our inventory. GCI team members coordinate an agreement on deliverables for the project, including photos and impact metrics. Gear recipient organizations and GCI team members stay in contact to exchange information about the continued impact of the gear upon the recipient's programs."
